

● Payment Reduction for Social Welfare Foundation Services

Thanks to cooperation between social welfare foundations, people with low incomes and financial difficulties can receive payment reductions for care services, meals, and residency (stay, accommodation) that are provided by social welfare foundations.

Note: Public assistance recipients are only eligible for reduction of private room residential fees (stay, accommodation).

Beneficiaries

- Person in significant financial difficulty and whose household members are all exempt from municipal taxes
- Public assistance recipients

Applicable Services (including preventive care services)

- Welfare facility for the elderly
- Day service
- Small-scale multifunctional in-home care
- Home-visit care
- Regular/Need-based home-visit care and nursing
- Community-based welfare facility
- Day service for dementia sufferers
- Short-term stay care
- Nighttime home-visit care
- Nursing small-scale multifunctional in-home care (Combined service)

Note: Please contact the Long-Term Care Insurance Service Counter of your local ward office for application and inquiries.

● Payment Reduction and Exemption

For those who have difficulty paying service fees due to special reasons such as a natural disaster, there is a system to receive reduction or exemption from payments under certain conditions.

Note: Please contact the Long-Term Care Insurance Service Counter of your local ward office for application and inquiries.

- Significant decline in primary earner's income compared to the previous year due to unemployment, etc.
- Major loss to house due to a natural disaster