

The diagram shows a line of sight from a point on the ground to a point on a distant object. A star symbol is placed on the line of sight, indicating a specific point. The angle between the line of sight and the ground is labeled with the number 17.

