

For Single Parents

City Homepage

We are improving our support system so that single-parent families can have a quality life and that children in such families can grow up well. Here are some of the many measures we are taking.

For allowance, medical care, etc.

Child Support Allowance

The amount and period of the allowance will vary depending on the child's situation, your income, and other conditions.

Single Parent Family Medical Expense Subsidy

Subsidizes a part of self-pay for medical expenses and self-pay for meal services at the time of hospitalization.
