Parent Power Up Site

We Support Families Raising Children with 「Parent Power Up Site」

To support families raising children, this Osaka City's website collects various columns and useful information about home education. In the columns on "Baby's Nighttime Crying," "Let's Make Parenting Fun for Dads," "First Weaning Foods," "How to Cope with the Terrible Twos," "Cheers to Working Parents!" "First Time at Kindergarten and Nursery School," "First Time at Elementary School and Junior High School," and "The smartphone that makes happiness come true: How to help your child safely use a smartphone," and many other themes that deal with various aspects of raising children from infancy to adolescence, you may find yourself saying, "I totally know what you mean!" The latest updates will be posted as needed, so please check them out!
