Schoolyard Open House

In addition to the various child-rearing support facilities introduced so far, nursery schools, kindergartens, and certified nursery schools also open their schoolyards to the public. Some of them hold community exchange programs and classes for preschoolers as well. You can experience the school atmosphere firsthand, which you can't get just by looking from the outside!

Here's the schedule!

Parenting Support Magazine "Fureai Kosodate Net"

"Fureai Kosodate Net" is a bimonthly publication that provides useful information for families with young children, such as the schedule for Schoolyard Open Houses, events at the Plaza, Center, and Library, as well as medical checkups and circles. You can get the most out of it as it comes in a calendar format!

Published by Higashinari Social Welfare Council

Distributed at Counter No. 23 (Ward Office 2F), Libraries,
