Osaka has long flourished as a commercial center, and is home to numerous businesses that support innovation around the world with their proprietary technologies and ideas. Currently, many large internationally renowned companies are proud to claim Osaka as the origin of its international prominence. A diverse range of small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), startups, universities, research institutes, and others have supported these large companies in building solid industrial bases that have contributed in creating seeds for new businesses every day.

Osaka is home to many companies that create unique, high-quality daily necessities and food products, as well as sustainable products. These products created daily in Osaka can make your life more enriching and enjoyable!
