

Minimum Limitation of Accommodation Days for Special Zone Private Lodging

1. For Osaka City's Special Zone Private Lodging (Business of Managing Foreign Visitor Accommodation Facilities in National Strategic Special Zones) the minimum limitation in operating is for 2-night/3-day stay.
2. If a reservation is arranged through an agency, it is necessary to set condition for "2-night/3-day stay or longer."
3. When a concerned residence is registered as a private lodging business and is also authorized for special zone private lodging, it will be subject to all restrictions of both business systems.

Restriction: Number of accommodation days per year is within 180 days; Obligation to submit periodic report on the number of accommodation days; Minimum limitation is 2-night/3-day stay

◎If accommodation is only for 1-night/2-day stay, this violates the Inns and Hotels Act. It is necessary to follow the 2-night/3-day stay or longer rule.

(If there is a violation, penalties such as imprisonment up to 6 months or a fine up to 1 million yen can be imposed. There can also be the case where both penalties are imposed.)
