Disaster Emergency Information

Emergency Earthquake Notifications

The Japan Meteorological Agency sends emergency earthquake notifications about earthquakes before strong tremors start. In the event of an earthquake estimated at a seismic intensity of at least lower 5, within a minute before the tremors spread, areas which may suffer an estimated intensity of at least 4 are notified. There will be, for example, a superimposed warning information on a TV screen about the strong tremors, so always be ready to do what you need to do immediately to protect yourself.

Emergency Notification E-mails

In the event of an emergency, Osaka City simultaneously distributes emergency information such as evacuation advisories and directives to the mobile phones of people in the city using the emergency notification email services of each mobile phone company.

● No reception fees

● A specified tone alert rings and the information is displayed as a pop-up notification.

● Those who are in the city temporarily can also get the information.

* Depending on your model or type of mobile phone, you may not be able to receive the information or you may need to set it up for receipt.

* Refer to the websites of each company for how to receive emergency notification e-mails.
