

Private Sector Pavilions

Thirteen private companies and organizations will be putting on unique exhibitions and performances, each based on their own theme.

Gas Pavilion Obake Wonderland

Credit: The Japan Gas Association

Under the concept of "Transform the Future!", this pavilion communicates future technologies and other information that will help to realize a carbon-neutral society.

BLUE OCEAN DOME

Credit: ZERI JAPAN

Based on the theme of "Revitalization of the Ocean," visitors to this pavilion, which features three domes, can learn about environmental protection concepts including the protection of marine resources and ecosystems.

GUNDAM NEXT FUTURE PAVILION

Credit: Bandai Namco Holdings
© SOTSU・SUNRISE

Here a life-size Gundam statue, standing approximately 17 meters high, will greet you. The partner company is planning to hold an exhibition that will allow visitors to experience the world of the Gundam Series.

Signature Pavilions

Eight venues where visitors can think about and update their concept of "life."

Domestic Pavilions

There are four pavilions, each with its own theme, representing different regions and companies in Japan.

© steAm Inc. & Tetsuo Kobori Architects All Rights Reserved

Theme: Invigorating Lives Playground of Life: Jellyfish Pavilion

Using jellyfish as a concept, this pavilion is a playground for the five senses where the feeling of being alive and creativity overflow.

Credit: Osaka Pavilion Association

Osaka Healthcare Pavillion

Here you can experience the healthcare and cities of the future with a version of yourself 25 years from now.

