English has become a regular subject in elementary school. We need to improve students' English communication skills by setting learning goals that connect throughout elementary school, junior high school and high school.

To encourage English education that links elementary school and junior high school, what can you do as a junior high school teacher?

Please follow these steps:

Step1: Think about what to say for 2 minutes.

Step2: Present your ideas to the other applicants.

Step3: Discuss with the other applicants.
