

Osaka City's urban landscape resources

Tour MAP

What are Osaka City's urban landscape resources?

In Osaka City, important resources that characterize the local scenery play a vital role in shaping the landscape, and to make as many people as possible aware of them and actively use them in community beautification, they are registered as urban landscape resources.

01 Traces of the Former Settlement
The Anglican Episcopal Church in Japan, Kawaguchi Christian Church

Nishi Ward

Located in Kawaguchi, once the site of a foreign settlement, this church preserves remnants of the area's history as a center of Western culture. With its beautiful brick construction, Gothic-style arched windows, and more than 100 years of history, the church stands as a testament to a bygone era.

1-3-8 Kawaguchi, Nishi-ku, Osaka City
A 7-minute walk from Awaza Station on the Osaka Metro Chuo Line and Sennichimae Line

04 Preserving a 1,200-Year Tradition
Harinakano Nakano Acupuncture /
Harinakano Nakano Pediatric

Higashi Sumiyoshi Ward

With a remarkable history spanning 1200 years, this acupuncture clinic has been passed down through generations of the Nakano family. It is said that the station and area were named "Harinakano" in recognition of the family's efforts to establish the railway, a legacy that continues to this day. The building, reflecting the once-bustling clinic of the past, and the historic signpost at the crossroads near the station evoke a deep sense of history and tradition.

3-2-1 Harinakano, Higashisumiyoshi-ku, Osaka City

05 Preserving Japan's Only Existing Renga Venue
Kumata Jinja Shrine

Hirano Ward

Kumata Jinja Shrine is home to Japan's only surviving Rengasho, a building dedicated to traditional renga poetry gatherings. Surrounded by the lush greenery of 1,000-year-old camphor trees and over 500-year-old ginkgo trees, the shrine and Rengasho are deeply steeped in history, offering a serene glimpse into Japan's cultural heritage.

2-1-67 Hiranomiya-machi, Hirano-ku, Osaka
A 6-minute walk from Hirano Station on the JR Yamatoji Line

03 Drum Bridge and Main Hall:
National Treasure
Sumiyoshi Taisha Shrine

Sumiyoshi Ward

Nestled within a lush forest, Sumiyoshi Taisha Shrine is home to the only shrine pavilion in the city designated as a national treasure. Other highlights include the elegantly arched drum bridge and the bowl of Issun-boshi, a character celebrated in a beloved Japanese folk tale.

2-9-89 Sumiyoshi, Sumiyoshi-ku, Osaka City
